

Mental Health Services Provider Information

Section 81.003 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code requires employers of persons who provide Mental Health Services to make inquiries of employers and former employers concerning any possible history of sexual exploitation of patients, clients, and former patients. Please read the following information regarding mental health services and providers to determine if this requirement applies to positions you are seeing at Baylor.

If you will be providing mental health services as defined below, you will need to complete this sheet in order to process your application for employment at Baylor.
