

|             | Fall Semester - Terms 2 & 3:                 | Spring Semester - Terms 4 & 5:                        |  |
|-------------|--|---|--|
| First Year  | Foundations of Genetic Counseling I          | Foundations of Genetic Counseling II                  |  |
|             | Medical Genetics I                           | Medical Genetics II                                   |  |
|             | Health Behavioral Counseling                 | Thesis IJournal Club II                           |  |
|             | Embryology                                   | Psychosocial Practicum I                              |  |
|             | Preparing for Genetic Counseling in Practice | Fundamentals in Epidemiology                          | Genetic Epidemiology and Population Genetics |
|             | Journal Club I                               | Ethical and Legal Issues in Human Genetics            | Medical Ethics                               |
|             | Research Methods in GC                       | Clinical Practicum II                                 | Lab Course                                   |
|             | Clinical Practicum I                         | Summer Semester - Term 6 or 1: Clinical Practicum III |  |
| Second Year | Thesis II                                    | Thesis III  |  |
|             | Advanced Genetic Counseling I                | Advanced Genetic Counseling II                        |  |
|             | Variant Interpretation and Counseling        | Psychosocial Practicum II                             |  |
|             | Journal Club III                             | Journal Club IV                                       | Clinical Practicum IV                        |
|             | Clinical Practicum IV                        |   |  |