

“Updates on Prenatal Testing”

The Department of Molecular and Human Genetics at Baylor College of Medicine and Texas Children’s Hospital, and Health and Human Services (HHS) Early Childhood Intervention (ECI) state office is pleased to announce the next topic in the genetics webinar series titled, “Updates on Prenatal Testing” will be offered Thursday, February 25, 2021 at 12:00 pm. This webinar will be presented by Dr. April Adams and Laura Buckner, M.Ed., L.P.C., UT Texas Center for Disability Studies.

This webinar will describe current prenatal testing options, the importance of family history and carrier screening, and review when patients should be referred for genetic counseling. In addition the Charting the Life Course trajectory will be reviewed with examples for families receiving ECI services.

To Register for this free webinar:

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/723010670474318593>

Texas Children’s Hospital is accredited with distinction as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation. This nursing continuing professional development activity awards up to 5.0 contact hours.

ECI service providers including EISs, Social Workers and LPCs will be able to obtain CEUs from these events.

All webinars will be available on the ECI archived webinar page under the “Genetics Series” section for those that are not able to participate in the live event.

If you have any questions, contact Paul Nixon at Paul.Nixon@hhs.texas.gov or Susan Fernbach at fernbach@bcm.edu .