

WEEKLY GI RESEARCH WEBINAR

"NAFLD hepatic fibrosis: challenges and opportunities"

Michelle T. Long M.D., MSc

Assistant Professor, Gastroenterology
Boston University, Massachusetts

Dr. Long is an early stage investigator and an Assistant Professor of Medicine at Boston University School of Medicine in the Section of Gastroenterology. Dr. Long is an ancillary study investigator in the Framingham Heart Study and is interested in understanding the association between NAFLD, hepatic fibrosis and cardiometabolic risk. Dr. Long will discuss her work defining hepatic fibrosis in the community and future opportunities in hepatic fibrosis research.
